Ribbon cutting ceremony for new beach at Jennings Randolph Lake

Baltimore – The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Baltimore District, will hold a special ribbon cutting ceremony to celebrate the official opening of the new Shaw Beach at Jennings Randolph Lake, Elk Garden, W.Va., Monday, June 14th at 11 a.m.

Scheduled speakers include Congressman Alan Mollohan of West Virginia and Lt. Col. J.T. Hand, deputy commander of the Baltimore District.

The new facility is part of the approved Jennings Randolph Lake master plan, a document that helps the Corps carry out its responsibilities to preserve, conserve, restore, maintain, manage and develop the projects' lands, waters and associated resources.

The 200-foot-long beach, named after the former town of Shaw, has a restroom and changing room, playground, picnic tables and a 40-car parking lot. . The beach is located near the West Virginia Overlook and is accessed by way of the project's main access road off of West Virginia route 46.

The public is invited to attend this free event. Point of contact for the ceremony is Jan Gonzales, Jennings Randolph Lake Project Manager, at (304) 355-2346.
